

Photo Contest Winners, 1979

1st place — DIAMOND SPARROW
by Margaret Elaine Perry, Wichita, KN

The 1979 Photo Contest produced many spectacular photos. All entrees were displayed at the convention exhibit hall of the Diplomat Hotel, Hollywood, Florida. The committee chairman handling the work load this year was Ron DeVolder, with Steve Clause, Ted Grochowski, Jr., and Dan Martin serving as judges. The judges studied, debated, meditated and finally emerged with the list of winners which were announced at the Saturday evening convention banquet, August 25th. On these two pages and this issue's front and back covers you see all the winning entrees. It is hoped that Margaret Perry will forgive us for showing her Diamond Sparrow in black and white. That beautiful photo is in the works as a future Watchbird color front cover. The other two winning color slides shown here in black and white will also appear in full color in later issues of the Watchbird.

When the Watchbird art director studied all the entrees, it was clear that the list of winners were deserving, but there were still quite a few beautiful photos that merited reproduction. Throughout the future issues, you will see the fine work of the other entrees that have been selected for publication. Their names are: G.W. Pillsbury, Norfolk, VA., Reneé Lapperuque, La Jolla, CA., Harold Hanson III, Redondo Beach, CA., E. Trent Swigert, Jackson, MS., Gary Lilienthal, Boston, MA., Colleen E. Rumph, Hacienda Hts., CA., Jack Leslie, Whittier, CA., Manuel Iglesias, Jacksonville, FL., Patricia Witman, Escondido, CA.
